ROCHESTER NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Rochester Numismatic Association was held in the library of the Municipal Museum on March 1st at 8 P.M.

Present: Messrs Plumb, Lange, Horner, Sunday, Woodbury, Kolb, Khune, Reddick, Dr. Peake, Emet Peake, Wardell, Parker, French.
Applicant: Mr. Wm. J. Shoenwertz of 57 Halford St.

President Plumb presided and called for the reading of the minutes of the preceeding meeting, which were approved as read. The application of Mr. Kleuher was acted upon favorably.

There was some discussion concerning the property of the Association, it being held that the Association should control it until such a time as the Association might disband, in which case it would revert to the Municipal Museum. Upon the return of Messrs Bauer and Gillette from their collecting trip in Africa they will be invited to assist in drafting proper resolutions protecting the association property in case of the breaking up of the association, a thing which the membership expressed as unlikely to happen.

The book, "History of the U.S. Mint" was placed on the table by Mr. Sunday with the statement that it was the gift of Mr. Woodbury. A vote of thanks expressed the pleasure of the association.

There being no other business, the order of the meeting was suspended for the usual auction, over which Mr. Sunday presided as auctioneer. Many good coins were sold, including U.S. cents and Romans.

Arthur C. Parker, Secretary.

ROCHESTER NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Rochester Numismatic Association was held in the library of the Municipal Museum at 8 P:M. Tuesday evening, April 19, 1927.

Present: Plumb, Lange, Horner, Sunday, Bauer, Borridaile, Dr. Peake, E. Peake, Reddick, Woolsey, Amberg, Wardell, Woodbury, Henderson, Lindboe, Richardson, Parker, Kuhne, Harringx, Potter, Gillette, Kolb, Moor, Keeley.

An excellent exhibit of ancient Greek coins, together with some Moham~~med~~edan and ancient Romans, was placed on the table by Mr George J. Bauer. These were representative pieces secured during his trip abroad during the winter months.

The meeting was called to order by President Plumb and the minutes of the preceeding meeting read and approved.

The consignment of medals struck by the society in honor of Paul M. Lange, as fifteenth president of the association, was opened and members inspected the medals, which were designed by Mr A.A. Kolb, medalist.

Upon motion Mr. Richardson was elected to active membership in the association, he having made application and been duly vouched for by two members.

The president requested Mr. Bauer to give anninformal address upon his African trip. Mr. Bauer responded and delivered a most interesting account of his 17,000 mile journey through northern Africa, Egypt, Syria, Palest~~ine~~, Italy, Greece, and certain Frehch cities in search of coins. His descriptions were highly illuminating as to conditions surrounding the collecting of coins in original sources.

Mr George Gillette, who was Mr. Bauer's traveling partner, also spoke of the collecting trip and mentioned some of its amusing as well as instructive features. Both speakers stated that at a later meeting a more formal presentation would be made.

There being no other business to bring before the meeting, upon motion, the association adjourned until May 3.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Rochester Numismatic Association was held in the Library of the Municipal Museum over

~~THE MEMBERS WERE~~ May 3, 1947, at 8 P. M.

An exhibition of certain fine coins collected by Mr. George A. Gillette while on his trip through Africa and the near east was placed on the table. Among the lots were 7 gold coins from the Luxpr find. The three stages of the Athenenian coins were illustrated by excellent specimens. Among the better and more striking exhibits were the coin of Mende, stamped with the satyr on a mule, Philip of Macedonia, Alexander the Great, both Barbaric and classic examples, and ranging from 1 dr. to 8dr, and also many early Romans. Some very fine silver coins were from Syracuse and from seventh century maslem sources, as from Abdel Mulek, (637 A.D.), the builder of the Mosque of Omar. Six Ptolmægs, uncirculated, a coin of Lysamachus of Thrace, a coin of Metapontum with a head of wheat and some early Persians were shown. The club greatly enjoyed the display of these treasures, but Mr. Gillette informed the members that of all the numerous specimens collected there were scarcely twelve of which he did not already have examples.

The following members were present: Messrs Plumb, Parker, Peake, Lange, E. Peake, Lindboe, Gillette, Chapin, Sunday, Kaufman, Reddick, Richardson, Kolb, Harringx, Wardell. Visitors, about 30 members of the Optimist Club.

The minutes of the preceeding meeting were read and approved. A bill for $62.60 from ~~Bassian~~ Brothers for completing the die of the Lange medal was presented and approved for payment.

There being no communications requiring reply and no applications for membership, ~~the meeting was~~ a recess was declared for the auction. Mr. Sunday acted as auctioneer and with his usual persuasive ability disposed of several lots of excellent coins, including early Europeans, Americans and a few ancients.
